2010 Intriguing Matchups:

The defending IBL Champs feature a star studded roster that includes 6 ex-NBA players, including Byron Russell, Lamond Murray, Toby Bailey, and more.

The HighFlyers regional rival features a roster that includes former Oregon State standout David Lucas (son of NBA great Maurice Lucas) as well former Portland State standout and Big Sky Conference Player of the year, Jeremiah Dominguez.

The Nippon Tornadoes, a professional basketball team from Japan, return to the IBL in 2010 with a revamped roster. Circle this must-see international matchup.

In what might be the most exciting addition to the IBL this season, the Yakima Sun Kings, a former powerhouse in the CBA, join the league after winning 5 of the last 15 CBA championships.
